

Examination Format – Myth and Religion

1 hour 30 minutes (without extra time)

Total number of marks available = 90 marks

Time recommendation = treat it as 1 mark per minute (e.g. spend 15 minutes on a 15 mark question).

Section A = Greece

Short answer questions, including some based on sources (provided in a booklet on the day).

One longer answer question, 8 marks, comparing two things.

Section B = Rome

Short answer questions, including some based on sources (provided in a booklet on the day).

One longer answer question, 8 marks, comparing two things.

Section C = Greece and Rome

Short answer questions, including some based on sources (provided in a booklet on the day).

One longer answer question, 15 marks (you get to choose from two options).

Examination Format – Roman City Life

1 hour 30 minutes (without extra time)

Total number of marks available = 90 marks

Time recommendation = treat it as 1 mark per minute (e.g. spend 15 minutes on a 15 mark question).

Section A = Culture

Short answer questions, including some based on sources (provided in a booklet on the day).

Two longer answer questions, 8 marks and 15 marks (you get to choose from two options for the 15-marker).

Section B = Literature

Short answer questions, including some based on the texts which we have read together (provided in a booklet on the day).

Two longer answer questions, 8 marks and 15 marks (you get to choose from two options for the 15-marker).